

River Loop Security

Strategic Advisory Cybersecurity Services

Cybersecurity is now central to how businesses think about their strategic advantages and risks. Before making costly mistakes, there are security considerations for investments, mergers & acquisitions, and compliance.

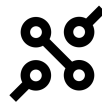

River Loop Security uses its deep technical knowledge combined with vast industry experience to provide focused strategy advisory services.

Cybersecurity visibility is critical to business decisions

Advances in technology have accelerated the rate of technology mergers and acquisitions. In addition, rapid go-to-market strategies by both newcomers and entrenched firms can result in poorly tested products making it to market. As a result, cybersecurity flaws, often due to overlooks aspects of product development, easily reach consumers and businesses.

River Loop Security brings leading technical expertise to help firms fully understand the cybersecurity consequences of major business decisions.

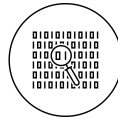

It's time to look at security strategically

IoT and connected devices impact every aspect of life inside and outside the tech sector

IoT acquisition deals are growing rapidly in number and equity value

Technical risks can have massive impact on equity value and regulatory compliance

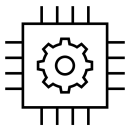

About River Loop Security

We provide security solutions to clients ranging from startups to global infrastructure providers. Our solutions are based on industry leading research, tested standards, and strong engineering principles.

We have a team of the brightest information security experts who are up-to-date on the latest threats and research. Our team has experience designing, analyzing, and securing thousands of IoT and embedded devices.

Services Include...

Technical Due Diligence

Get an in-depth technical look at products or companies to understand their strengths and weaknesses

Security & Supply Chain

Understand what real world concerns exist from a cybersecurity and supply chain perspective

Standards & Regs Review

Discover how emerging cybersecurity and tech standards impact a product or company's business risks

www.riverloopsecurity.com
team@riverloopsecurity.com